Our operations are located on the science campus in Berlin Adlershof, south-east of the city center.

Plane

If you are travelling to Berlin by plane you will either arrive at Tegel International Airport in the north-west of Berlin or at Schönefeld Airport in the south-east. Going by taxi from Tegel International Airport to Adlershof will take around 30 – 50 minutes. From Schönefeld Airport you will reach our facilities in 10 – 15 minutes.

Public transport

From both airports as well as from any place in the city of Berlin you can reach us by public transport. From the nearby city railway station „Adlershof“ (S-Bahn) it is a seven-minute walk to our facilities (see map for details).

Car

Just enter our address into your navigation system or use the web-based navigator map24.com and print out the best routing from your starting point to the 3BP facilities.
